Cont. Pet. No. 132 of 2006.

Shri Sunil Sahu, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Vinay Harit, Sr. Counsel with Shri Narayan Shrivastava, counsel for the respondent.

Respondent has already filed his reply along with affidavit and certified copy of order passed by him.

This Court on 13.04.2006, passed the following operative order.

> "In view of this order, the revision preferred by the fifth respondent before the second respondent does not survive for decision-making and in that view of the matter, the second respondent is directed to remit the original record, if received from the third respondent or the fourth respondent, forthwith to the third respondent in order to facilitate him to hear and dispose of the appeal of the petitioner expeditiously."

Though the respondent soon after the receipt of the copy of the order did not close the proceedings, yet, he did not pass any order contrary to the order passed by this Court. From perusal of the proceedings of respondent, it is apparent that he did not willfully disobey the order of this Court.

I am of the opinion that the respondent did not commit any contempt of this Court, therefore, the petition is liable to be dismissed and is accordingly dismissed.

Certified copy as per rules.
